

The Best Hotels in the World for Diving

The Best Hotels in the World for Diving

If you're a diving enthusiast dreaming of where you should take your next adventure, we've hand-picked the 5 best hotels around the world that offer first-class diving opportunities to get up close and personal with the underwater kingdom.

Maldives, Floating Resort

The Maldives is renowned for its tropical reefs and abundant marine life, and the award-winning Floating Resort by Scuba Spa offers a unique diving experience to explore it like no other. It combines the gourmet dining, entertainment and relaxation of a luxury cruise with exceptional scuba diving opportunities right beneath your feet. With a 30-person crew providing world-class customer service, it's the ultimate resort for both scuba divers and non-divers to discover paradise in style.

Dubai, Atlantis The Palm

Located on The Palm in Dubai, Atlantis is a magnificent 5-star hotel of dazzling grandeur, sprawling across an area of 46 hectares with 17 hectares of water parks perfect for families and diving enthusiasts. Surrounded by sandy beaches and the pristine Arabian sea, this hotel offers endless opportunities to experience the 65,000 marine life that call this place home. From scuba diving, swimming with sharks and dolphins and exploring aquariums to visiting the world-famous Aquaventure Waterpark, this is the pinnacle of luxury dive hotel experiences.

Indonesia, Wakatobi Dive Resort

The Wakatobi Dive Resort is a secluded 5 star luxury resort located in Sulawesi, Indonesia. It combines the comfort and modern conveniences of luxury living with miles of uninterrupted coral reefs right on the doorstep of your suite. The world-famous reefs are teeming with colourful corals and exotic marine life all year round that are perfect for scuba divers to explore with a first-class diving team. Over 40 diving sites are accessible, and divers have the opportunity to experience the thrill of night diving.

Tobago, Blue Waters Inn

The Blue Waters Inn in Tobago is a hidden paradise that offers some of the most awe-inspiring diving sites in the Caribbean. Surrounded by 46 acres of tropical jungle, the resort is just minutes away from a crystal-clear underwater paradise that boasts a stunning smorgasbord of marine animals, wrecks and coral reefs waiting to be explored with the guidance of highly qualified diving professionals. The private bay allows you to explore in peace and solitude so that you can truly appreciate the beauty of this ancient place.

Australia, Lizard Island

Australia's Great Barrier Reef is world-renowned for its phenomenal diving opportunities, but the luxurious Lizard Island resort is one of its greatest treasures. With 24 private beaches, the resort is located in the most northern section of the Great Barrier Reef with the reef right on your doorstep. Dive into dark blue waters and spot the many marine wildlife that call North Queensland home or take a stroll across powder white beaches and explore the surrounding bushland spread across the 1,013 hectares of a National Park.

Disclosure: This is a sponsored post.