How To Be Happy In A Relationship?

People are judging us all the time. They say we know nothing about life because we are still young. And that the 'big problems' are still ahead of us. They say it's not possible to be so crazy about each other, that love ends up after few years. The truth is that we actually know how to be happy in a relationship.

After 8 years of being together, we are more happy with each other than ever before.

How do we do it? How can we travel, work, sleep, eat, and spend every single minute of our lives together?

Here are our tips on how to be happy in a relationship:

Take Care Of Each Other.

It's very important to pay attention to your partner's needs. Does he like football? Take him for a game. Does she like shopping? Give her a voucher to her favorite shop.

Choices are endless. Relationships are made of these little things. Make your partner happy and you'll probably get the same in return.

Listen To Each Other.

Talking and being close is one of the most important things in the relationship. You need to know what your partner feels, what he/she dreams of, what are his/her biggest fears.

Bad communication may kill your relationship and makes you move away from each other.

Remember, EVERYDAY counts. If you haven't genuinely talked with your partner for a long time, do it today. Take him/her for a walk and try to listen to what he/she has to say to you. Or just tell what you feel.

Express Your Feelings.

There's nothing better in this world than hearing from someone you love how special you are.

Say something nice to your partner at least once a day. Try to praise him/ her when your family or friends are around. He/she will feel that he/she is someone special to you.

NEVER criticize your partner in public. It's the worst thing you can do. If there's something bad you want to tell, say it only to him/her in private.

There's no need anyone else should hear it.

Be Attractive.

If you don't wash your teeth, do not care about hygiene and never wear anything sexy, don't expect your partner to be attracted to you.

You should always look good, no matter if you are wearing tracksuits or formalwear.

None of us is perfect and we don't look like stars from some fancy magazines. But we all are attractive in a very special way. You know what your partner likes, right? Then emphasize this.

Go on regular dates.

One of the best things that you can for your relationship is to go on dates. After all these years you may still feel butterflies in your stomach.

At the end of the day, everybody looks sexier in the light of the candles!
