Marina from travelexperta.com Travel Blog interview:

When did you start traveling?

I have been traveling since I was 3 months old. But my biggest trips that I have taken were more in my 20's and at 27 years old I took off with a backpack for 1.5 years. During that time I met my husband who is Guatemalan and we have been expats for the past 11 years.

And we also now have 2 kids so we have been traveling with the family now, which is amazing.

What is the most important during your travels?

To experience the place. To taste the yummy foods. To learn about the culture and see what is unique to that particular area and part of the world.

What is the most experience that you had during your travels?

Educating my kids. Opening their eyes to the world and not discriminating and judging others. We are all the same and travel allows us to become more united.

What is the most beautiful place you have been to?

Sooooo many. This is an impossible question to answer. Every place is so beautiful and unique in itself that it is a sin to compare them to the others.

What do you avoid when you travel?

I never carry too many things on me. I don't even have a purse. Never go where it is dark and unknown. If you feel in harm, leave the area right away and go back to the hotel or go to a more populated area. And I never wear jewelry or do anything for my family and I to stick out.

What's your biggest travel dream?

To travel and show the world to my kids with my husband.

What are your favourite travelers? What blogs do you read?

I read so many, I honestly don't have any favorites. I learn something new from each one I read.
