When it comes to heading out on a vacation, you want to be absolutely sure that you're choosing the right place to go. That may seem like an easy task at first, but there are many factors to weigh and consider before making your final choice. For example, what kind of rooms and suites do the hotels and resorts that you are considering have? How large are they? Are the resorts more aimed towards adults, families, or both? What are some of the highlights of the hotel, in terms of the amenities that it offers?

Thailand is lucky enough to be enjoying a boom in tourism traffic, which has, in turn, seen a surge of activity among its most popular and well-regarded hotels. For those looking for fun in the sun in Phuket, check out Novotel Phuket Surin Beach Resort. Here are just a few reasons why it's a good place to stay.

Lovely Rooms & Great Location

First and foremost, it's worth mentioning that this resort puts an emphasis on quality and fun when it comes to the interiors of its rooms.

Secondly, the location is really great, just across the street from the Surin beach. There are many restaurants and shop around, including the famous 7Eleven.

Pools

Then again, who needs the beach when you have a great swimming pools in your hotel? Everyone will find a pool that will suits their needs, no matter if you are an adult who want to have a drink, or a child who just wants to play.

We were traveling with 8 months old infant, and we even found a pool that was suitable for her. How awesome is that?

Fun for the entire family
